

Peter: We were travelling with my future wife and we went to Athens and we were going to the islands. So, we went- After we stayed in Athens and I ran around the Olympic oval, we went to Piraeus, to catch a boat. But lo and behold, I made a mistake. I left my passport

Dr Cooper: At the track?

Peter: No...

Dr Cooper: At the Olympic track?

Peter: At the hotel, in Athens. So, as we're getting on the boat, they say "We need to see your passport". I said "I ain't got a passport, it's at the hotel". They wouldn't let us on the boat. So, we called the hotel, and the hotel sent the passport down to us in Piraeus. And we got the passports and the rest was okay. But that's the worst episode of losing something that I've ever had.

Dr Cooper: That was a very, very good story. Thank you.

Peter: You're welcome!
