

Cooper: So, mum, right now you're taking me to the airport.

Karyl: Yes.

Cooper: Now, how else do we use "take"? Do you think they'll ask me to take my liquids out of my bag when I go through immigration?

Karyl: I don't think they will, because you have a special pass where you don't have to do it.

Cooper: Really? So, I don't have to take anything out of my bag?

Karyl: You don't have to take anything out of your bag!

Cooper: But do I have to take my shoes off?

Karyl: You do not have to take your shoes off!

Cooper: I don't have to take my shoes off?

Karyl: You don't have to take your shoes off!

Cooper: Does that mean I'm a very important person?

Karyl: Oh, very important!

Cooper: Do you think that I should take the time seriously when I go to the airport?

Karyl: That's one thing you should definitely take! Take the time seriously!

Cooper: Do you think...

Karyl: Take all your things, so don't forget anything.

Cooper: Take all my things. I try to take all my things. I hope I didn't forget anything.

Karyl: I hope you did take all your things.

Cooper: Anyway, thanks for taking me to the airport!

Karyl: You're welcome!
