

Cooper: Excuse me, Christina.

Christina: Yeah.

Cooper: I was wondering if you'd make me breakfast this morning.

Christina: Of course, I'll make you breakfast. Could you tell me what you'd like?

Cooper: I'd like an English breakfast with bacon and sausage and fried mushrooms.

Christina: Um, that's not possible because we don't have any of the ingredients.

Cooper: I thought you were going to say: "That's surprising".

Christina: Oh yeah. Actually, I'm surprised you'd like this kind of breakfast.

Cooper: I thought you'd be a little confused because I never ask for that kind of breakfast.

Christina: That's right. It's confusing.

Cooper: Well, would you mind making me eggs?

Christina: Sure. What kind of eggs would you like?

Cooper: I'd like those, uh, special poached eggs that you make. They're very impressive when you make those eggs.

Christina: I'm glad you're impressed by my cooking abilities.

Cooper: One day could you tell me how you do it?

Christina: Um, of course that would be great.

Cooper: Excellent.

Christina: Because in this way you can cook them on your own.

Cooper: No... For me, it's too stressful to cook.

Christina: Even that is stressful?! You get stressed out about so many things.

Cooper: That's true. That's true. But do you find that surprising?

Christina: No, I'm not surprised.
