

Cooper is annoyed because all week we've been eating healthy, tasteless meals. I think it's weird that he's complaining when he really cares about his health and body. So, yesterday we had an argument. Cooper said: "I want you to cook more interesting meals for me. I think you don't like me anymore". And I said: "I think you're unfair. I want you to treat me better". And he said: "This has nothing to do with the way you cook. It has to do with what you cook. I like spicy food. On the other hand, I'd like you to make something more interesting next time". Anyway. I wanted us to be happy again, so we made up and we ordered pizza and hamburgers. This will be an excuse to work out later.
